

Melissa Celik
(347) 740-2020
m.celik999@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Queens College City University of New York

Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Studies, Expected Graduation May of 2025

Major: Environmental Studies

Overall GPA: 3.95

Relevant Coursework: Our Planet in the 21st Century, Our Changing Planet, Physical Geology, Spreadsheet Programming, Using R: Intro Statistics(in progress)

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT

Gosnell Lab at Baruch College [NY, NY]

March 2020 - July 2021

- Researched the causes and consequences of ecological diversity to help better manage natural resources.
- Worked in groups and contributed to lab research.
- Working on meta-analysis for predator-prey relationships.

New York City Science and Engineering Festival [NY, NY]

March 2020

- Developed a research project and presented it to four judges.
- Made connections with people of similar scientific backgrounds.

College Now Summer Research [NY, NY]

July 2019 - August 2019

- Worked alongside Professor Stephen Gosnell in the field of marine ecology.
- Conducted real research experience, both fieldwork and lab work.
- Researched how mussels feed in the presence of other organisms.
- Presented the results of said research at the Baruch College Now project fair.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Advanced Science Research [NY, NY] Year Three Student

September 2018 - June 2021

- Analyze scientific journals using close reading to further understand the discussed topic.
- Produce summaries of said scientific journals and explain to prove knowledge gained.
- Collaborate with mentors in the same field of interest to gain experience in the field.
- Cooperate with peers

SKILLS

- Proficient in excel
- Trained in using web plot digitizer
- Adept at using Zotero

Language: English(advanced), Turkish(conversational)